Sports are a great example, often starters and the students who get the most playing time are students who have a last name that means something in Independence, even when other team members are just as good or even better and work just as hard or even harder. Independence is extremely political.	5/26/2016 8:15 PM

Q17 Why aren't you proud to be from Independence?

Answered: 50 Skipped: 236

#	Responses	Date
1	It's not that I don't like the town, but I have no personal connection to this town. I do appreciate that it is a nice community, but I don't feel at home necessarily for my own reasons.	5/27/2016 10:06 AM
2	Because it's a terrible town	5/27/2016 8:32 AM
3	no attractions, weird people	5/26/2016 10:38 PM
4	They favor athletes, and not the FFA or Art groups	5/26/2016 9:31 PM
5	Because, there is not much people that cares. People are rude.	5/26/2016 7:02 PM
6	Cause everyone want to kill themselves	5/26/2016 1:46 PM
7	Because nothing happens here.	5/26/2016 1:40 PM
8	I don't like it	5/26/2016 1:39 PM
9	The city government is cheap, it's rare to not hear sirens at night, and a lot of individuals I've met are quite unfriendly.	5/26/2016 1:39 PM
10	im not from here	5/26/2016 1:36 PM
11	H	5/26/2016 1:34 PM
12	Some of the people in this town degrade and damage the amenities and reputation of Independence	5/26/2016 12:38 PM
13	because the school system isnt good	5/26/2016 11:50 AM
14	Boring	5/26/2016 11:46 AM
15	There's nothing that great about this town. When it comes to the news, there isn't ever anything good about us on it-it's always negative which is hurting the reputation that our city is attempting to hold.	5/26/2016 11:45 AM
16	I feel that there is too much drama and there is way too many bad reputations from the town	5/26/2016 11:41 AM
17	This town promotes a very bad attitude, parents are allowed to treat kids like crap, schools offer no help to students, and the town paints itself as accepting but in reality my multicultural family isn't comfortable visiting.	5/26/2016 11:41 AM
18	This school is broken and has been for a while the people a cruel and don't let go of the past, they make up rumors and aside from the fact that they are all a bunch of whiny attention whores for example, what happened to Beth. Everyone flipped out and they had protests and all this other crap. its not a good environment and i would never recommend anyone raise a family here.	5/26/2016 11:41 AM
19	theres nothing special about it	5/26/2016 11:38 AM
20	Im not Sure	5/26/2016 11:33 AM
21	It's a small town that doesn't have many options	5/26/2016 11:32 AM
22	Because there is so much negativity. The school board blatantly disregards the opinions of community members, and makes decisions based on their own beliefs. Though the community is kind, and outgoing, they are only opened to those who have been part of Independence for generations past.	5/26/2016 11:29 AM
23	Oh good I was hoping for a comment section!! We put pride into only certain activities like sports but activities like drama are usually ignored no matter our success. Also, the shelves are too high and I'm too short to reach anything.	5/26/2016 11:22 AM
24	Cuz its boring and everyone are stuck up or country AF	5/26/2016 11:16 AM
25	Because I don't like this town	5/26/2016 10:47 AM
26	Because of all the scandals and from the reaction I get from people when I say I'm from independence.	5/26/2016 10:42 AM
27	This town has gone to crap	5/26/2016 10:39 AM
28	it's only because I'm not from independence i moved here from waterloo	5/26/2016 10:09 AM
29	I live in the country and have no real connection to the town part.	5/26/2016 9:45 AM

30	cause I'm from da south	5/26/2016 9:43 AM
31	I would actually say I am indifferent in this matter. I am not proud, but that doesn't mean I do not like Independence.	5/26/2016 9:22 AM
32	because Im not from independence. I'm from south Carolina	5/26/2016 9:11 AM
33	We don't have a Taco Bell	5/26/2016 9:05 AM
34	I don't know what there is to be proud of	5/26/2016 9:04 AM
35	people are very judgmental and everything that has to do with our school is corrupt	5/26/2016 8:59 AM
36	The school is annoying. I feel that my opinion does not matter. Right? I'm just a "teenager". People become leaders because they like power, attention, and money. Not because they're good leaders. Teacher turnout is so high because they are paid so little and under appreciated. Some of my favorite teachers have left for better towns. Also teachers who gossip and bully students CONSTANTLY/have been suspended multiple times are not fired yet somehow one very nice person who did nothing wrong was fired. There's no diversity. It's so narrow-minded. So many judgmental, homophobic, racist people. NO SUPPORT FOR THE ARTS. No new businesses last very long. There's nothing to do here. Especially nothing I can do by myself. The land is completely flat.	5/26/2016 8:57 AM
37	I dont live in Independence	5/26/2016 8:52 AM
38	its a dumpy town and no one has school pride and our school system is going bad	5/26/2016 8:50 AM
39	Our school is filled with people who are narrowed-minded who do pot. No one comes out to support any of our teams sporting events unless they are having a winning season. They are only prideful when the camera is on them. Plus everyone is so for themselves now a days. For Example, a fundraiser the juniors (or the class of 2017) did was support a girl in their grade whose Mom died. They probably felt bad because they bullied her.	5/26/2016 8:43 AM
40	I'm not from independence	5/26/2016 8:36 AM
41	because	5/26/2016 8:32 AM
42	Its not that I am not proud. Its simply that I am indifferent or have little interest in my "proud-ness" into the city.	5/26/2016 8:30 AM
43	Because Pride comes before the fall, ya fool	5/26/2016 8:30 AM
44	There wasn't a "kinda" answer	5/26/2016 8:28 AM
45	The school system is corrupt at the moment	5/26/2016 8:28 AM
46	sports coaches	5/26/2016 8:27 AM
47	HARD TO GET ACCEPTED	5/26/2016 8:23 AM
48	Because it's not that good of a place	5/26/2016 8:05 AM
49	It is Independence.	5/26/2016 8:04 AM
50	Because the school system is cypred	5/26/2016 7:43 AM
